Afternoon Tea Menu

The Tradition of tea in the afternoon has been enjoyed since the early 19th century. The duchess of Bedford is credited with inventing it to fill the long gap between luncheon and dinner. Dainty cakes and sandwiches were served on precious porcelain with rare teas from around the world.

Here at The Manners Arms the hotel's best loved homemade cakes, scones and finger sandwiches with fillings ranging from Cucumber and Cream Cheese to Rare Roast Beef and Egg Mayonnaise still prevail – but there is a new emphasis on distinctive flavours, variety and innovation.
